

WANT RATES RECONSIDERED

Western Railways File Petition With Interstate Commerce Commission.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Attorneys for all western railroads Thursday filed a petition with the interstate commerce commission asking that the effective date of its recent decision in the advance rate case be postponed for 90 days. The decision was to have become effective Sept. 20. The railroads want time to prepare an exception to the ruling.

It is stated in the petition that the commission's order is set to go into effect too soon to give time for consideration. The railroads suggest that if a 90 day postponement were allowed, it would be sufficient to permit a rehearing of the case to enable the road to present their exceptions and finally to dispose of the whole case.

In its decision, handed down on July 20 last, the commission rejected proposals of the roads to increase the rates on most of the principal commodities, such as grain and grain products, cattle, live stock, fresh meats and package house products, were allowed on bituminous coal and coke, except as to South Dakota points; brewers rice, fruit and vegetables in carloads.

The decision as a whole was regarded as a great victory for the farmers and shippers generally who contested merit of the proposed matter.

The rates the railroads want the commission to reconsider particularly are those on grain, live stock, packing house products, cotton piece goods and fertilizer. No reasons were given by the attorneys for their presentation, they merely asking that they be permitted to prevent their arguments.

No official connected with the commission would indicate what action would be taken on the request, but the impression prevailed about the commission's office that the request probably would not be granted.

"FREE WOMEN" SEND ENVOYS TO WILSON

Margaret Anglin, Actress, to Present
Resolutions to 64th
Congress.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—Envoys from the "free women" of the nation are now on their way (theoretically) to Washington armed with a set of resolutions to congress and a great protocol addressed to President Wilson.

As a matter of fact the envoys will not start until Sunday morning. But for the sake of the plot of a pretty ceremony enacted Thursday night in the Court of Abundance at the exposition, the envoys are supposed to be on their way.

The deputation was named at Thursday's closing session of the convention of "free women" held in San Francisco this week. It consists of Mrs. Sarah Bard Field, Miss Frances Jolliffe and others who are to travel in an automobile and acquire signatures to the monster protocol.

Miss Margaret Anglin, actress, was given the honor of presenting the resolutions which are to be read to the 64th congress urging that body to consider the Susan B. Anthony amendment to the constitution.

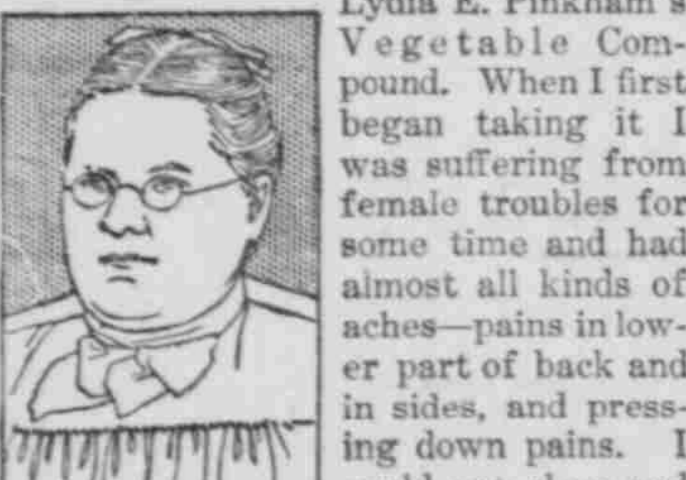

CALLED PARROTS.

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—A charge that many speakers on chautauqua platforms were mere "parrots" speaking what their employers have taught them to speak, was made by Frank Dixon in an address before the convention of the International Lyceum association today. Among the so-called "parrots" to whom Dixon referred are Miss Jane Addams, Nicholas Murray Butler and Jenkin Lloyd Jones, Carnegie Foundation peace speakers.

MRS. LYON'S ACHES AND PAINS

Have All Gone Since Taking
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Terre Hill, Pa.—"Kindly permit me to give you my testimonial in favor of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I first began taking it I was suffering from female troubles for some time and had almost all kinds of aches—pains in lower part of back and in sides, and pressing down pains. I could not sleep and had no appetite. Since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the aches and pains are all gone and I feel like a new woman. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs. AUGUSTUS LYON, Terre Hill, Pa.

It is true that nature and a woman's work has produced the grandest remedy for woman's ills that the world has ever known. From the roots and herbs of the field, Lydia E. Pinkham, forty years ago, gave to womankind a remedy for their peculiar ills which has proved more efficacious than any other combination of drugs ever compounded, and today Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is recognized from coast to coast as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing hundreds of thousands of letters from women seeking health—many of them openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; and in some cases that it has saved them from surgical operations.

THE AUDITORIUM.

A picturization of George Ade's best comedy, "Just Out of College," is the attraction at the Auditorium today, being given in five reels, with Eugene O'Brien, Ben Hendricks, Jack Sherrill, Amelia Summerville, Kate Jepson and Wright Kramer in the leading roles. The picture opens an indefinite run at the Fine Arts theater, Chicago, on the 19th, where 25c, 50c and $1.00 admission will be charged, while it is being shown at the Auditorium today at the regular prices of five and 10 cents, so that South Bend picture fans are seeing this picture before Chicago has a peep at it and at much cheaper prices. A hand-colored Pathe educational picture is also on the bill. Tomorrow's offerings are "The Slavery Student," a three reel Edison, featuring Pat O'Malley and Viola Dana; "The Faith of the Roystering Blades," by George Ade; "The Mirror," a Lubin comedy drama, with Ethel Clayton and Crane Wilbur, and the Selig weekly of current news.

AT THE LASALLE.

Internationally famous as a comedienne, Miss Fanny Ward will make her debut as a photodramatic star in the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play company's production, "The Marriage of Kitty," at the LaSalle today. In this production, which will abound in comedy of the highest type, the Lasky company, therefore, introduces to photoplay enthusiasts another noted star of the legitimate stage in a play that has been acted in all European countries, throughout the United States and Canada and in Australia and South Africa.

"The Marriage of Kitty" is a comedy of continental and American society and manners, replete with humorous characterizations and amusing scenes. Miss Ward's role of Kitty in the photoplay version will offer her opportunities for her delightful and wholesome personality that not even the stage version provided. On Saturday the celebrated beauty, Jane Cowl, will be seen in stirring dramatic play by Justin Foreman, entitled "The Garden of Lies." Miss Cowl's experience with such successes as "Within the Law" has placed her in the highest rank of leading women. She is a brunette of the most pronounced type and possesses grace of bearing and a charming personality, equalled by few. The story of "The Garden of Lies" is filled with thrilling moments and opportunities for emotional acting and the attractive star is equal to every requirement.

AT THE ORPHEUM.

"It's an ill wind, etc." for the storm of yesterday drove the fair crowds down town and packed the theaters, the Orpheum turning away hundreds at both evening performances. Those who secured seats in the pretty playhouse were rewarded with a first class bill.

The big act was Lasky's summer girls, in a musical comedy of miniature size, but bright and tuneful and capably presented by a cast of four principals and six attractive chorus girls who could sing. The program was rather vague but Helen Bancroft, Mae Lorimer, Mr. Metcalfe and Billy Hurst were clever in their respective roles and the new song numbers introduced were appreciated. A duet, "A Little Bit of Loving," "Bom-Bom Bay" and the finale, "Rag Time Ball," went over big and the light lines were delivered in a way that few suspected first performances.

Low Hawkins, black face star, with some good songs and familiar riddles told in a new way kept the crowd laughing. Dainty Dorothy Brenner returned in her act, "The Candy Booth," seen here last April, but worth repeating on account of the delightful personality of the star. Her winsome ways make her baby song and ballads a hit. Her new partner, Eddie Allen, makes a good appearance and sings well.

Okla, dancing violinist pleasing with her novel act, and the Kelsos brothers opened the show with comedy juggling of clubs and hoops.

"THE LURE."

Yesterday afternoon and last evening the Oliver Drama Players presented the much talked of play, "The Lure," at the Oliver theater, and there is no gainsaying that it pleased the audiences at both performances. It is frank in its teachings, dealing with the evils of the white slave traffic in a startling manner and many of the telling speeches were received with loud applause. The company handled the play in a capable and inoffensive way, for which they deserve much credit. "The Lure" will be given for the rest of the week, with a matinee tomorrow. No children under 14 years of age will be admitted to the theater during its run. Starting Sunday afternoon William A. Brady's well known farce comedy, "Baby Mine," will be presented and will be the attraction for the first part of next week up until Wednesday evening.

Lawrence Finch scored as Bob McCauley, the secret service agent. The role calls for—naturalness and Mr. Finch seemed to possess this in large quantities. Miss Patti McKinney appeared as Sylvia Jones, the shop girl and she and Mr. Finch were called upon to do some clever work in one scene in the second act.

Others who took part were: Paul, the cadet, C. C. Blundell; Capt. Jim Wilson, the politician, Jack Robertson; Dr. Goldberg, John Justus; the servant, Will H. Bruno; McGuire, E. E. Thompson; Katie Lockwood, a fashionable modiste, Miss Ethel Romain; Nellie Mason, a victim, Miss Elsie Corbin; Mrs. Hester Jones, the mother, Miss Robbins.

AT THE INDIANA.
The sensational emotional drama, "A Fool There Was," will be presented again today at the Indiana. Prominently featured in the principal feminine role is Theda Bara, an actress secured from the Paris Theater Antoine, especially to create this part. As the vampire woman, relentless in the pursuit of her susceptible victims she is superb and her devilishly pretty face has given her the title of the world's most beautiful wicked woman. This engagement of this picture continues until Saturday.

MORGAN RUMOR DENIED

No Truth to Statement He Seeks British Naturalization Papers.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—The report that J. P. Morgan had taken out British naturalization papers was categorically denied Thursday at the American embassy, the British naturalization office and at the London office of the Morgan firm.

The foreign office volunteered the suggestion that such a course on Morgan's part, at this time especially is improbable, in view of his capacity as the American purchasing agent for the allies, not to mention the presence in New York now of the allied financial commission whose host he is.

16TH A RECORD BREAKER

New York Weatherman Declares It
Hottest One Since 1870.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The eighth day of the most unseasonable, unreasonable weather ever experienced at this time of the year in New York placed another record upon the books. Thursday was the hottest September 16 ever noted in the weather man's diary, which he has faithfully kept since 1870. Six deaths and 19 prostrations were reported.

Reports from other sections of the country show that death and discomfort extended as far north as Manchester, N. H., and as far west as Chicago. Schools were closed in Albany, Newburgh and Gloversville, N. Y., New Haven, Conn., Philadelphia, Pa., Terre Haute and Manchester, N. H.

Boston declared a holiday until Monday for the school children and all through Massachusetts the children were dismissed.

In Worcester, Mass., a woman of 82 years and an infant died from the heat. One died in Chicago, one in Waltham, Mass., and there was another victim in Toledo, Ohio. New Hampshire reported two deaths and scores of prostrations.

DEATH TO HUNGARIANS WHO MAKE MUNITIONS

JOHNSON, Pa., Sept. 17.—Hungarians in this city have been warned not to engage in the manufacture of munitions for the allies under penalty of imprisonment or death.

The warning is issued by Baron Hauser, consul for the imperial and royal Austro-Hungarian government, and published in a small German paper.

The warning calls the attention of Austro-Hungarians to the fact that their government keeps an eye on America and that those who manufacture war supplies are liable to execution if they return.

Baron Hauser says he was directed to send out such warnings by the Austrian embassy at Washington.

SEEKS DIVORCE.

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—Rob Roy Ricketts, the art dealer who gained much publicity last year through bankruptcy proceedings, Thursday filed in the circuit court an answer to the divorce suit brought by Mrs. Jennie Ricketts. She had charged him with drunkenness and statutory offenses. His answer is a categorical denial.

Do You Know That American Beer is the Best Beer for Americans?

The science of the American brewer has produced a beer best suited to our climate and the taste and temperament of our people.

"The moderate drinker," says Dr. Sydney Hillier, the famous English pathologist, "is in a far better position than the total abstainer, who often consumes an excess of solid food."

Our American beer is surpassed by no foreign beer in quality of materials, nor in the brewing skill that produces it. American beer tastes better to Americans; it agrees with them better than foreign beers. A peer amongst American beers is
